Pat Murray ibvm

Pat is an educator who worked in social justice and education for change over many years. She spent six years on the General Council of the Loreto Sisters, recently completed her PH.D in the United States and is currently Executive Director of Solidarity with Southern Sudan, a joint venture of the Superiors General of International Religious Congregations. Pat will speak on daring to image; willing to risk - keys for social transformation.

Josephine O'Reilly

Josephine O'Reilly (Kirribilli, 1983) is now based back in Australia after writing and performing for eight years all over the world with the Irish comedy trio, the Nualas, and the American premier comedy company, Boom Chicago. Jo has extensive experience in television and theatre and is a national improvisation and Theatresports champion. She has performed at six Edinburgh comedy festivals, the Melbourne and Sydney comedy festivals and recorded a radio series for BBC radio 4. Jo has performed sell-out seasons in London, New York, and fingers crossed, in the weeks ahead, at Loreto gatherings all over Australia.

The Honourable Justice Elizabeth Gaynor

Elizabeth Gaynor is a Past Pupil of Loreto Mandeville Hall Toorak (1972) and St Mary's College. Having graduated with a Bachelor of Arts/Law at the University of Melbourne in 1979, she completed a Graduate Cadetship in Journalism. She worked as a journalist and also as duty lawyer at Victoria Legal Aid in the Magistrate's and Children's Courts before being admitted to the Bar in 1985. Elizabeth has appeared in numerous trials in various Courts and in 2002 she was appointed to the County Court Bench.
