

Applications invited for Residential Tutors in 2027

St Mary's College is a Catholic co-educational residential college affiliated with The University of Melbourne; it has an enrolment of approximately 160 students. Originally established by the Loreto Sisters, St Mary's seeks to provide a supportive living environment in which students pursue personal excellence and participate in a full range of academic, cultural, social, spiritual and physical activities to enhance their university experience. St Mary's alumni occupy leadership and service roles in all fields of endeavour in Australia and around the world.

We are seeking Residential Tutors who will participate fully in our college community life as members of our pastoral care team, and who will be proactive in attending to the personal and academic wellbeing of our students.

Applicants will:

- engage with young people in a respectful, professional and caring manner
- be positive role models for students and within the wider University community
- be supportive of the Catholic ethos of the college
- support the college's leadership in its vision for the college
- be flexible, cooperative, and responsible in all aspects of collegial life
- develop and maintain rapport with young people

Applicants will normally have completed an undergraduate, graduate or postgraduate degree. Experience living in a university residential college will be well regarded. The ability to serve as an academic tutor in undergraduate subjects will also be well regarded although this is a separate role.

These positions are residential (including meals and utilities) for one academic year (15 February - 19 November 2027), with the possibility of renewal for a second year. Details on remuneration and other financial details are available in the Position Description which can be obtained by emailing: dean@stmarys.unimelb.edu.au The college has as a priority its responsibilities for providing a safe and supportive environment for all its students and staff; in addition, all appointees will have a current Working With Children card, undertake a national police check, and make a Declaration in accord with the National Code to Prevent and Respond to Gender-based Violence.

Applicants should send a cover letter including a response to the above criteria, curriculum vitae, and academic transcript to the Principal, Dr Darcy McCormack, no later than 28 September 2026 via email: principal@stmarys.unimelb.edu.au

Further general information about St Mary's College is available at: <http://www.stmarys.unimelb.edu.au/> or on (03) 9349 9555.